	9	UK	FRAPA	2ND CHNACE	How many times, over the many years of watching talent contest shows, have we as viewers sympathized and felt for contestants who did not make it through the early stages of the contest. Many of them are ordinary people with human stories behind them. They had one shot at realizing their artistic dreams, had their 5 minutes under the spotlight and then disappeared, back into their lives as housewives, pizza chefs or secretaries.	13	1.5 TV Hrs
			Tagline	They All Deserves One!	This program gives them the never expected second shot.
					Through a contest format, choosing from a pool of ex-participants in shows like X-FACTOR, GOT TALENT, IDOL, VOICE,... we will show the human side of our contestants and the stories of their hopes going so high in their first attempt some tears ago as well as how they coped with going back to the grounds of reality having achieved only so little. Giving them the chance to compete again, it is very likely that we would discover true talents among them and even wonder how on earth they did not make it in their first go!
